STATEMENT OF SALES POLICY

This Statement of Sales Policies is to ensure fair and equitable treatment of all authorized A-America dealers. The policies and procedures outlined here have been followed by our company for many years, and these practices have proven to be in our mutual best interests. The common understanding this Statement of Sales Policies provides to A-America dealers and to A-America personnel will facilitate resolving problems which may, from time to time, arise in ordering, shipping and receiving merchandise. In all these matters, as with all of our products, our goal is to serve you in a manner to merit your confidence and build your goodwill.

A-America will not sell its products to any authorized retail or authorized internet furniture dealer who adopt distribution or sales methods that may be detrimental to A-America’s long-range interests or which are not in the best interests of A-America’s customers. We recognize that market conditions vary from geographic region to geographic region and recognize that our sales policies must be tailored to address these market differences. A-America, therefore, reserves the unconditional right to withdraw or restrict the distribution of any part of its line or products or to terminate altogether its relationship with any dealer, at any time, for any reason which A-America considers to be in its best interests. The distribution of A-America products is a unilateral decision by A-America.

CONDITIONS OF SALES

It is A-America’s policy not to sell its products to retail or internet dealers who sell A-America products from unauthorized locations or who transship to other dealers, unless set up as an authorized A-America distributor. All orders are expressly conditioned upon observance of this policy and A-America reserves the right to cancel all outstanding orders which we believe are in contravention of this policy and/or to terminate at once its relationship with any dealers who violate this policy.

Buyer shall have responsibility to check any and all purchase orders for accuracy, including, but not limited to, quantities, correct fabric and finish selections.

If the Terms and Conditions of this Statement of Sales Policy differ in any way from the terms and conditions of Buyer’s order, this acknowledgment shall be construed as a counteroffer and shall not be effective as an acceptance of such order unless Buyer assents to the Terms and Conditions contained herein, which shall constitute the entire agreement between the parties. Buyer’s assent to the Terms and Conditions contained herein shall be deemed given upon Buyer’s execution of this acknowledgment below or upon Buyer’s failure to object to these Terms and Conditions in writing within ten (10) days from the date of receipt of this acknowledgment. If customers wish to use their Freight Forwarder to move their goods, they will be Importer of Record. In rare instances where customers require A-America to be Importer of Record and use their Freight Forwarder, A-America will need coordination between the Customer’s Freight Forwarder and A-America’s Customs Broker to provide accurate data for A-America to file the ISF10+2. A-America’s Customs Broker will be responsible to clear Customs. A-America will only use our Customs Broker.

Unless you arrange your own ocean freight and Customs clearing, we will arrange the most economical routing.
